"...so now the architect is safe. We got the layout of Nighthaven's HQ from the blueprints, and it's time for the next step. Ying?"

They keep everything secure on a private server, including their equipment inventory.

With that intel, we could connect them to the equipment that was used to kill Yahata.

Unfortunately, the server can't be hacked externally. We have to be on site to download the server data.

Even with the architect's credentials to enter the building, we're walking into the lion's den.

This needs to be done quietly.

And that's not our expertise.
Caveira’s team is currently deployed in South America, but a few of her operatives are on their way to Singapore to take over this leg of the mission.

For now, Wolfguard’s work is done.

And the architect? Are they going to keep him safe, or is he just a tool to them?

We established this system for a reason. We all have our mandates. Stealth infiltration is theirs.

We just rescued him. If they’re going to take him behind enemy lines, we should at least have one of us there with him.

Let me go.

No one’s an enemy yet, but I get your point. You go as far as the door, then get him clear.

I won’t disappoint you.
"By the way, thanks for saving me. Working with NightHaven isn't easy, but it beats being kidnapped."

"You can thank me when we're out of here. I'd rather not be using you to get past security, but..."

...here we are.

You must be--

Let's go. Not much time.

Ookey then.

It's hard to believe that an enterprise like this could have criminal connections.

Well, OCR-marked bullets don't lie. We'll find something.

So uncomfortable...

I'm dead, sooo dead...
DON'T WORRY. IF THINGS GO TO SHIT, YOU CAN STICK WITH ME.

INCOMING.

WHY ARE YOU HERE?
WORK ON THE NEXT SECTOR DOESN'T START UNTIL NEXT MONTH.

YES, WELL... BLASTING MATERIALS FOR DEMO NEEDED... RE-CALIBRATION.
KALI'S ORDERS.

I SHOULD PROBABLY...

WHILE I'M HERE, I COULD LOOK INTO THAT RECREATIONAL AREA YOU SUGGESTED.

WHAT SPORT WAS IT?

RIGHT ON! VOLLEYBALL COURT, WITH THE SAND AND EVERYTHING.
BEST IDEA EVER!

TELL KALI YOU SAW ME ON YOUR WAY IN!

WILL DO. SEE YOU!
That's a lot of trucks. Are you sure we shouldn't...

We're almost there, stay on task.

Right.

Once you're in, what then? Worry about yourself. Keep your cover and move fast.

Open it!

Alright, fingers crossed...

Damn!
Well, Plan B.

Hey!

Should have known they'd revoke his credentials when he was taken.

What's going on?

No one else should be patrolling this sector.

Urgh!

What the hell?

We don't know anything yet, you can't just--

If he wakes up...

Better than a dead man with our names on it.

Remember why we're here.

Boop!

There's a lot of guards in there too...

I can't spare them all.

This is recon, not elimination. Nighthaven isn't an enemy yet.
EASY FOR YOU TO SAY, BUT FAIR ENOUGH.

"THINK SHE'LL BE OKAY IN THERE, ON HER OWN?"

"SHE'S A ONE-WOMAN ARMY. I'M MORE WORRIED FOR ANYONE THAT GETS IN HER WAY."
LETHAL FORCE IS RARELY THE ANSWER.

WHEN IT’S ALL OVER, WE WILL HAVE TO THINK BACK AND DECIDE...

“OR DID WE JUST MAKE IT WORSE?”

WAS IT WORTH IT?

To be continued in game!
